Gary merged his practice into Margolis Edelstein in August, 2008. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's University (B.A., Economics) and Widener University School of Law (J.D., 1993). Gary has focused his practice in the healthcare defense area representing the interests of individual physicians, psychiatrists and nursing professionals as well as institutions. His trial experience in New Jersey and Pennsylvania has included cases involving failure to diagnose, engaging inappropriate treatment options, patient abuse and physician error. He has also had the privilege of representing the interests of his clients in other areas of the law. Mr. Brascetta is admitted to practice in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Gary is the newest member of our health care defense group which includes:
